

No Time to Lose

You cannot afford to disregard the warnings of a weak and diseased heart and put off taking the prescription of the world's greatest authority on heart and nervous disorders—

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

If your heart palpitates, flutters, or you are short of breath, have smothering spells, pain in left side, shoulder or arm, you have heart trouble and are liable to drop dead any moment.

Major J. W. Woodcock, one of the best known oil operators in the country dropped dead from heart disease recently, at his home in Portland, Ind., while mowing his lawn.—The Press.

Mrs. M. A. Birdsell, Watkins, N. Y., whose portrait heads this advertisement, says: "I write this through gratitude for benefits I received from Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I had palpitation of the heart, severe pains under the left shoulder, and my general health was miserable. A few bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure cured me entirely."

The man who annually announces the death of the peach-crop in Kentucky has taken his pen in hand a little too early this year, but in this day of wireless telegraphy and horseless carriages it behooves even the pessimist to get a move on himself. Of course the peach-crop is killed, and is killed dead as a herring. Did anybody ever hear of a time when the peach-crop was not dead in the month of January?—Glasgow Times.

We are promised a time when nations shall learn of war no more and when men will realize what folly it is to cut each other's throats in order that a few thrifty and far-sighted schemers may grow rich at their expense. When they will refuse to follow the lead of reckless and ambitious politicians, who, in order to gain votes or hold on to power, would plunge the world into conflict. Men of common sense will not consent to be butchered simply to advance the political fortunes of so-called statesmen or to enrich contractors speculators and promoters. For war, except in defense of vital principles or for protection from invasion is the most wicked folly of which governments can be guilty. In the debates in the House of Representatives last week it was stated that the war in the Philippines had already cost the government $300,000,000, and that it was now costing at the rate of $12,000,000, a month. It is estimated that Great Britain has spent more than a billion dollars on the war with the Boers. This is not taking into consideration at all the loss of valuable lives and the destruction wrought. May the good Lord hasten a time when swords shall be beaten into plowshares.—Exchange.

A strange decision has just been made by a jury in Onawa, Iowa, Frank Crum a wealthy bachelor, and Miss Mary Christianson were engaged to be married last summer. Before the day set for the wedding arrived Crum died. Miss Christianson then sued the estate for breach of promise of marriage, taking no account of the intervention of Divine providence. She asked for $7,000 and Wednesday the jury awarded her $6,000. The estate was sued in the same manner as though damages had been sustained in a breach of any other contract. The possibility of fulfilling the obligation had no weight.

HOUSEWORK

Too much housework wrecks women's nerves. And the constant care of children, day and night, is often too trying for even a strong woman. A haggard face tells the story of the overworked housewife and mother. Deranged menses, leucorrhoea and falling of the womb result from overwork. Every housewife needs a remedy to regulate her menses and to keep her sensitive female organs in perfect condition.

WINE OF CARDUI

is doing this for thousands of American women to-day. It cured Mrs. Jones and that is why she writes this frank letter:

Glenade, Ky., Feb. 10, 1901.

I am so glad that your Wine of Cardui is helping me. I am feeling better than I have felt for years. I am doing my own work without any help, and I washed last week and was not one bit tired. That shows that the Wine is doing me good. I am getting fatter than I ever was before, and sleep good and eat hearty. Before I began taking Wine of Cardui, I used to have to lay down five or six times every day, but now I do not think of lying down through the day.
